MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel

FROM: John F. Blake
Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT: GS-17 Comparative Rankings

REFERENCE: Memo dtd 16 Jun 77 to Sec/EAG fr D/Pers, subj: Comparative Ranking of Senior-
Graded Personnel

1. Attached are this Directorate's comparative rankings for GS-17's which are being submitted for use by the Executive Advisory Group as outlined in the referenced memorandum.

2. These rankings were developed by the Directorate's Senior Personnel Resources Board. The ranking of 29 individuals is obviously a judgmental exercise and, while my individual ranking may have been somewhat different, I have no basic quarrel with the totality of this work.

3. I do have difficulty in agreeing that [redacted] ranks twenty-seven out of twenty-nine. I fear the Board was unduly influenced by the fact that [redacted] is currently in a GS-15 Personal Rank Assignment and it is most unfortunate if this be true. The Comptroller has time and again informed me of the high level of [redacted] performance and the fact that he represents part of the backbone of the Comptroller's office. In my opinion justice would have been done to [redacted] if he would have been ranked somewhere between fifteen and twenty.
